When We Walk With God, the Best is Yet to Come

“Youth! As children, we thought that there wasn’t anything we couldn’t achieve. And we believed we could become anything. Astronauts, famous scientists, sports stars, movie stars, presidents, and generals!

But then we grew older. Life began to beat us down. Victories were fewer than defeats. Health began to wane. And most people my age ask: Are the best days of our lives behind us? Or put in another way: “Isn’t there anything better to life than this?”

The answer is yes. The best is yet to come if we walk with God!

Isaiah spoke of this in 64:4. “Since ancient times no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who acts on behalf of those who wait for him.” Paul paraphrased this verse in 1 Corinthians 2:9. “‘What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived’ — the things God has prepared for those who love him.”

If we walk with God, He has prepared a place for us without pain, without suffering, without want. There will be only love, acceptance, honor and joy.

The best is yet to come if we walk with God!

Marriage Means Being In Love for Life

Marriage is love walking hand in hand together.

It's laughing with each other about silly little things, and learning to discuss big things with care and tenderness.

In marriage, love is trusting each other when you're apart. It's getting over disappointments and hurts, knowing that these are present in all relationships. It's the realization that there's no one else in this world that you'd rather be with than the one you're married to.

It's thinking of new things to do together.

It's growing old together.

Marriage is being in love for the rest of your life.
